STATEMENT BY MINISTER Re. Enhancement of rate of Interest on Employees Provident Fund

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF LABOUR (SHRI P. A. SANGMA): Hon. Members artaware that under the EmployeesProvident Fund Scheme, the CentraGovernment has to declare the rateof interest to be credited to the account of the provident fund subscribers every year. The rate of interest has to be determined keepingin view the earnings from theprovident foundinvestmentsTheinvestment pattern of the provident fund was' liberalised with effect from 1. 4. 1386and with this, the interest earningshave slightly picked, up. TheGovernment has, therefore, decidedto declare the rate of interest of 11. 5per cent for the year 1987-88 as against 11 pe'r cent for the year 1986-87'. I hope that the Members wouldwelcome thi$_s$ measure.

MR. CHAIRMAN: Now clarifications—Shri Narayanasamy.

SH»i V. NARAYANASAMY (Pon-dicherry): Mr. Chairman, Sir, the hon. Minister has said that the raws of interest to be credited to the account of the provident fund subscriber for the year 1987-88 is 11. 5 per cent as against 11 per cent for the year 1986-87. I would like to know whether the interest will be compound in nature or it is simple-inte-rest because the amount is lying there as a deposit. I would like to have a clarification from the hon. Minister whether it will be trc as a compound interest or not.

SHRI NlRMAL CHATTERJEE (West Bengal): Sir, the Minister call certainly take credit that the interest rate is being enhanced in the context of the fact that generally the interest rates in the economy have been reduced. But, Sir, the question remains that when the cost of living is rising at the rate of 9 per cent, whether or not 11. 5 per cent is adequate in real terms. Even the Cha-kravarty Committee reported that the real return should be some what more than this. In view of this and in view of the other fact that the public plrovident found scheme peran interest rate of 12 per cent and The special deposits under the in dependent provident. funds can get 12 per cent rate of interest, would not consider this to be a meagre rise? And there is also a second tact to which his attention should be drewn. Under the employees provident fund scheme, when the people retire, they take almost ages to receive their dues. I know that it is compounded and I am not asking that question. They take ages Bet their dues from the employees'

•dent fund scheme. The Government of India have recently indi-

l that its own employees would be given their retirement benefits on the day they retire. Will the Minister ensure that the employees provident fund scheme is so governed thai this happens in the case of the icribers to the employees provident fund scheme also? Thank you, Sir.

श्री सत्य प्रकाश मालवीय (उत्तर प्रदेश) : मान्यवर, यह कर्मचारियों की भविष्य निधि में वर्ष 1987-88 में कुल आधा परसेंट की वृद्धि की है । नौ जो 11 प्रतिशत ब्याज मिलता था, वह बढ़कर अब साढ़े 11 प्रतिशत मिलेगा । मैं माननीय मंत्री जी से जानना चाहता हू कि केवल आधा प्रतिशत ही वृद्धि करने का आधार क्या है और क्या सुझाव पर गौर करेंगे कि यह वृद्धि होकर कम से कम 12 प्रतिशत हो ?

MR. CHAIRMAN: Mr. Minister, have you anything to reply?

SHRI P. A. SANGMA: Sir, the first question relates to the simple interest applicable on balances in th« accounts with eflect from 1. 4. 1987. Mi. Chatterjee said that this H-5 pc: cent interest is not adequate. Sir, we have been raising the rate of interest every year. From 10. 15 per cent in 1985-86 it became 11 pea-cent in 1986. 87. And then it became 11. 5 per cent. And th_e fact is that on 85 per cent of the investments that we make, we get 12 per cent interest. And there is the rise in the administrative $charge_s$ required for running the organisation. By raising i_t to 11. 5 per cent in effect, we will be landing up slightly in the deficit. So, we are not saving any money at all. But I would not be able to tell you exactly what the deficit will be but I am told we will be slightly in the deficit. I think that answers the last question that we are not able to rate it to 12 per cent.

About pendency, raised by Mr. Chatterjee, $ther_e$ are lots of cases pending. We have been trying to expedite the disposal of these cases. Pendencies are so large that in spite of our giving some sort of incentive in the scheme that we started last year, we find it is humanly impossible to cope with the p'roblem because the cases have accumulated ^{so} much. We are going in for computerisation and only this morning we have installed a computer machine for Delhi region. We are going to do so for other $region_s$ also. Workers have some reservations about it and we have made it clear that it is as a result of computerisation that we are going to achieve efficiency and quicker service and no worker will be affected.
